Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Tribute: The Proceedings at a Meeting of the Union League Club New York City, February 14, 1878 In the various President Theodore Roosevelt many errors have been made as to his direct ancestry, and many have failed to connect him with his father, the late Theodore Roosevelt (Senior), who was so greatly beloved and respected during his useful life in New York City. It has therefore been suggested that I should reprint a letter read at the Memorial Meeting of the Union League Club in February, 1878, which gives an account of some of the many forms of civic and philanthropic usefulness, which made Mr. Theodore Roosevelt (Senior) such a power and influence for good. Few men have left so deep an impress upon a community, or bequeathed to a son so splendid a legacy of earnest devoted and patriotic service.
