Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Andres Alois Black Wolf is the unabashedly frank tale of an alienated young man's painful-sometimes painfully funny-loss of innocence. The dark, artistic, intelligent, and always-questioning Vincent Wing is at the end of his high-school career. At the same time, he is dealing with mixed emotions about the two girls in his life-his ex-girlfriend, Clara, and the new object of his desire, Maggie. As the narrative of a debauched senior trip to Brazil unfolds, the reader realizes that Vincent is reflecting back on it all as an older man coming to terms with his life. Alois main character, Vincent, reflects what many young men experience but rarely share. He struggles with handling his emotions and managing his sexual feelings. He is questioning himself as well as social institutions such as Christianity, education, and career. Vincent's stress level peaks as his psyche is plagued, haunted by visions of the mysterious black wolf. Alois book is utterly authentic. His often-vulgar candidness vacillates from darkly brooding to riotously funny. His story is relatable, but his style is distinctive, fresh, and evocative.
