Notes ETTER BOOK and Abstracl of Out Services. The Diary appears to have been planned with a more limited scope than it actually assumed. Not only does it embrace, in accordance with its title, a memorandum of letters written and received by Dr. MacSparran and a record of services held by him outside the reputed limits of S. Paul s Parish, in Narragansett, as for example, at Coeset, Conanicut, Old Warwick and Westerly, but it also notes many of the daily incidents of his domestic life, the social events of the vicinage and, although to a somewhat limited extent, items of public interest. 2 May 29th. No year is here indicated, but the entry of August 1st, following, shows it to have been 1743. 3 Y Restoration. The Restoration of King Charles II. to the English throne. The Act 12, Car....
