Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Emergency Relief After the Washington Place Fire: New York, March 25, 1911 This report of the Red Cross emergency relief, following the fire which occurred on March 25, 1911, in the premises occupied by the Triangle Shirt Waist Company at 23 Washington Place, New York City, is submitted by the Red Cross Emergency Relief Committee of the Charity Organization Society. One of the essentials in emergency relief is quick action in organizing the work and promptness in reaching final decisions. This was the first occasion which had arisen in New York for testing the value of the affiliation between the American National Red Cross and the Charity Organization Society as its institutional member. The degree in which it made immediate and effective action possible and concentrated contributions and administration has been extremely gratifying. The fire occurred late Saturday afternoon. On Sunday Robert W. de Forest, chairman of the Red Cross Emergency Relief Committee of the Charity Organization Society, called upon Mayor Gaynor and arranged with him for the immediate issue of an appropriate appeal for contributions in the name of the Red Cross. All relief funds, except that of the Union Relief Committee (see page n), were consolidated with that of the Society's Red Cross Committee, and this exception was more apparent than real because of the co-operation to which reference will be made. The work of receiving and acknowledging contributions was attended to in the office of Jacob H. Schiff, treasurer of the fund.
